SSC DEMOLISHES TWO HISTORIC BUILDINGS ON CAMPUS

The Old Gym building was constructed on the SSC campus in 1923 and housed the basketball teams until 1977 when the Brother Peter Memorial Gymnasium was built. It was used as a recreational and practice gym from 1977 until Hurricane Katrina in 2005.

SEA COAST ECHO

St. Stanislaus College on Tuesday began the painstaking process to demolish two stormed-damaged historic buildings on its campus.

The Bay St. Louis City Council, on the recommendation of the Historical Preservation Commission, recently approved the plan to remove two buildings on the campus that were damaged in Hurricane Katrina in 2005, the Old Gym Building and the Chapel Building.

"We came to this decision after many years of discussions and deliberations about these two buildings, which represent so many memories for our alumni and community," said Brother Barry Landry, S.C., president of Saint Stanislaus. "We believe this decision is best for our school campus, our current and prospective students, and the future success of the school. The reality is that these facilities pose significant safety concerns for vehicular and pedestrian traffic, are expensive to maintain and insure, and are cost prohibitive to salvage."

The two buildings were built in 1923 and 1930, respectively. The Old Gym held an auditorium and a basketball gym. The Chapel Building was the site for school Masses, convocations and ceremonies, and housed the library on the first floor. Both were devastated by Hurricane Katrina. Afterward, their roofs were replaced but they were never fully repaired or put into use again.

"These two buildings are memorable. It is where many of us grew up," said Joseph W. Gex II, a 1988 graduate of St. Stanislaus and the current alumni director. "But we must recognize that it is not the buildings that guide us today, but what we learned in

Colleagues, friends remember LiLi Stahler-Murphy

The former Waveland Ward I Alderwoman passed away on Sunday

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

LiLi Stahler-Murphy "appreciated life in general," her friend Bernie Cullen said.

"She loved life, whether she was fighting over something she believed in to belly dancing with her friends at Relay for Life," Cullen said.

Residents of the city of Waveland and Hancock County this week are mourning the loss of LiLi, who passed away on Sunday, July 12 after a battle with ovarian cancer.

"Your whole life attitude changes," LiLi said of her cancer diagnosis in a March interview with the Sea Coast Echo. "You never really think about dying until you have a life-threatening disease."

Cullen said that, throughout their five-year friendship, LiLi did just that, enjoyed every moment of life, every moment of the day.

"That's the greatest gift she's given me," she said.

During the summer, LiLi hosted a water aerobics program for the "Swimming Women."

Kay Kell, a member of the group, said that LiLi invited her to aerobics when she learned that Kell couldn't swim.

"I finally did go," she said. "I sat on a water horse and did water aerobics. I just ended up in deep water and kept falling off. She told me 'you are too high-maintenance.' She always told you like it was."

Her "honest" approach to life is what Waveland Ward I Alderman Jeremy Burke said made her such a good alderwoman.

From 2006 to 2014, LiLi served as a Ward I alderwoman for the city of Waveland. While she was in office, the city had to rebuild all the public buildings, streets, and sewers after Hurricane Katrina.

Former Waveland Mayor David Garcia — who served with LiLi during her tenure — said

Bay gets more than $2.5 million for Depot revitalization, new p.d. headquarters

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Despite the recent statewide spike in COVID-19 infections, the Bay St. Louis City Council had some positive news to discuss at its regular meeting on Tuesday — including more than $2.5 million in grants and other awards for revitalization projects.

First up on Tuesday, Hancock County Tourism Director Myrna Green told the council that the city had been awarded a $100,000 grant for improvements at the Depot train platform, in preparation for the long-awaited revival of Amtrak service on the Coast.

The funding is a 50/25/25 grant, meaning the Southern Rail Commission will provide $50,000 and the city and Hancock County governments will each put up $25,000.

The money will be used to fund ADA improvements, as well as parking lot repairs and building a new canopy where the passengers will disembark from the train.

The council also discussed two grants approved last week by the Mississippi Legislature, using the Gulf Coast Restoration Fund (also known as "BP money"): A $1.5 million award for the revitalization of the Depot District; and another $1 million to help the city build a new police department.

Monday that LiLi was "very energetic, intelligent, and had one goal at heart, to move the city forward."

Garcia said that LiLi joined him on trips to Jackson to promote Waveland and was very active in the Mississippi Municipal League.

Her legacy in Jackson still lives on, Burke said.

"When I go to Jackson to meet with state lawmakers, the questions I get asked the most is 'How is my friend Mrs. LiLi doing?'" Burke said.

After moving back to Waveland, Burke said he would often walk down to city hall and attend aldermen meetings.

"I thought she did a fantastic job," he said. "She started the 'What's Up Waveland' newsletter. Anytime she was in a meeting, anytime she spoke, it was an honest and humble stance and always from the heart."

Burke said that "you knew where you stood with her" and when she took the "bulls by the horn, there was no stopping her."

When LiLi decided she didn't want to run for another term, Burke said, she asked him if he wanted to run so he did.

Former Diamondhead councilman and Hancock County Supervisor Blaine LaFontaine said that LiLi always encouraged young people to run for public office.

"I was one of the youngest officials at one point in city government," he said. "In 2013, Mrs. LiLi was so progressive. She was so supportive and open-minded to projects and policies that would move Waveland, Bay St. Louis, and Hancock County forward."

For LaFontaine, LiLi's legacy will be her dependability, her honesty, and her bluntness.

"She was a vocal leader and valuable resource at a time when not many women served," he said. "She commanded the room. We were all looking for a leader at the time. She came at the right time. She was a friend to many. Even on her worst days, she tried to inspire all the time. She was never afraid to face reality and continued to inspire all the time. It's a somber day for many."

Burke said he also learned several lessons from LiLi, including being honest while serving in public office.

"She always said 'nobody wants to be lied to,'" Burke said. "Someone can call and if you can't help them, just tell them. They'll be more mad if you give them false hope. She was a great Christian woman. If there was a cause she believed in, she went after it 100 percent."

One of those causes was opening Waveland's Ground Zero Hurricane Museum, which opened its doors in August 2013 on the eighth anniversary of Katrina.

"She got all the displays in the museum," Waveland Mayor Mike Smith said. "She was an amazing woman, a powerhouse, and strong-headed. If she wanted it, she went after it and fought for it. We love her and she is truly going to be missed in this city."

Back in March, LiLi spoke about being named one of Hancock County Relay for Life's Honorary Survivors for 2020, which she said came as a "surprise and delight."

She continued to play an active role in her community and life and said "you got to have faith and a good attitude."

When it came to living in Waveland, LiLi said she "wouldn't live anywhere else."

"I love it here," she said. "I made a vow to see the beach every day. It's so pretty, like Heaven on Earth."

Cullen said that she and LiLi often spoke about their "little slice of heaven."

"We would often sit in her house and think about all we have in life," she said. "I'm very lucky at this time in my life to have a close friendship with LiLi."

Cullen said LiLi had a "strong faith" and that she loved St. Rose Catholic Church.

Cullen and Kell both said that LiLi encouraged them both to attend St. Rose.

"It was a part of her heart and soul," Kell said. "She loved the music and the people there."

Kell — who is a former city manager for the city of Pascagoula — said that she was impressed with LiLi being a "strong woman in local government."

"As a city manager, I can always tell the difference when there is a woman on the council," she said.

Cullen said that LiLi had a way of "bringing people together."

"There will never be another LiLi," she said.

Bay ranks as number 5 in 'America's Best Small Coastal Towns' competition

SEA COAST ECHO

USA Today announced on Friday that Bay St. Louis had earned the number 5 spot in the publication's annual America's Best Small Coastal Towns competition — Gulf Shores came in ninth.

The winners were announced on USA Today's 10Best.com on Friday.

"Bay St. Louis plays an extremely important role in tourism in Coastal Mississippi," Milton Segarra, CEO of Coastal Mississippi, said in a press release Friday. "Their 'all are welcome' message, sense of community, art scene, unique dining opportunities, local downtown shops, beautiful sprawling beaches, and stunning bay views all make for a highly desirable destination, which is reflected in the voters' decision to rank Bay St. Louis so high on this list of extraordinary coastal towns found across the nation. This is a phenomenal opportunity to showcase everything that Bay St. Louis has to offer, which will in turn benefit all of Coastal Mississippi as a destination."

Gex's mother, Virginia, managed the library in the Chapel Building for 30 years. She was the librarian when Hurricane Katrina hit. "The library was not spared," he said. "I visited campus with her a few days after the storm. She was stern faced and stoic, but you could see the hurt in her eyes. She said, 'We will begin again.'"

"This decision to raze these two buildings is not a rejection of our history, and it is not done out of forgetfulness," Brother Barry said. "On the contrary, we honor our history, and the lives, examples, and sacrifices of those on whose shoulders we stand each day by making, as they did, the difficult decisions to look forward with courage and trust."

The land where the buildings were will be turned into green space and an improved entry to campus for students from the parking lot.

State's total number of COVID-19 cases now at more than 37,000

The number of Mississippians who are presumed recovered from COVID-19 is 25,932.

The Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH) on Tuesday reported 862 new cases of COVID-19 in the state and 23 new deaths, with 17 new cases in Hancock County since last Friday.

"Mississippi's total of COVID-19 cases since March 11 now stands at 37,542, with 1,272 deaths …," according to an MSDH statement on Tuesday. "Currently there are 805 Mississippians hospitalized with confirmed COVID-19 infection, and 254 more with suspected COVID-19.

"About 26,000 Mississippians are now estimated to have recovered from COVID-19. That leaves about 10,000 who are still recovering, under medical care, or in isolation and unable to work. The burden of COVID-19 on the state is now very high."

MsDH reported 393 new cases of the virus on Monday, with one new death; 868 cases on Sunday, with 19 deaths (eight of which occurred between July 12 and July 6 and were identified from death certificate reports); 797 cases on Saturday with 15 deaths; and 1,031 new cases and 11 deaths on Friday.

Gov. Tate Reeves on Tuesday on Twitter urged every Mississippian to wear a mask and practice social distancing as much as possible. He said hospitals statewide are already facing a crisis and theories that we need to reach "herd immunity" would require more than 3,000 more Mississippians to contract the virus every day for a year.

As of Tuesday, a total of 158 cases of COVID-19 were reported in Hancock County, with 13 deaths from the virus, including eight cases and four deaths in long-term care facilities.

Harrison County now has a total of 1,231 cases of the novel coronavirus, with 16 deaths, including 99 cases and nine deaths in long-term care facilities.

Pearl River County's totals jumped to 317 cases with 21 deaths, including 42 cases and 10 deaths in long-term care facilities.

As of July 13, the number of patients hospitalized with confirmed infection is 805; 254 hospitalized with suspected infection; 227 patients in ICU; and 126 patients on ventilators, according to MSDH.

Statewide, 363,662 Mississippians had been tested for COVID-19 as of 6 p.m. on July 13.

"Anyone with symptoms of fever, severe cough or severe chest pains – especially those who are older or in poor health – should make arrangements for testing with their doctor or one of the many healthcare providers now performing testing," according to MSDH. "Healthcare providers can assess your health history and symptoms, and perform testing for COVID-19 as needed. MSDH is also helping conduct free drive-up testing sites in many parts of the state. Always call ahead to the testing provider for instructions on safely being examined before you visit for your test."

There are COVID-19 testing sites open in Hancock County.

"The Old Town Depot District has the potential to be a huge tourist attraction for the city, which made the project a perfect fit for the Gulf Coast Restoration Fund," according to a press release from Mayor Mike Favre's office. "It is (Mayor Favre's) hope that the grant will be the fire needed to ignite the revitalization of the Old Town Depot District."

"A few weeks ago, I was worried that our project was dead, but refused to give up the fight," Favre said in the release. "We headed to Jackson to persuade legislators to fund this important revitalization. With the help of my friends Brent Anderson, Richard Bennett, Philip Moran and my city council, we were able to secure funding through legislation."

Anderson and Moran were scheduled to address the council Tuesday, but were unable to attend the meeting.

Ward Three Councilman Jeffrey reed asked to form a committee from the public to discuss options for the Depot District.

Among the improvements in the grant request are an outdoor amphitheater and seating; a water feature; a bathroom facility; parking; and updates to the facade of the Depot building itself.

The new police department building will be constructed at the corner of Hwy. 90 and Main St., where the old department — closed a few years ago due to black mold infestation — still remains.

The council has issued a request for bids to tear down the old building.

"I am thrilled that all of our hard work paid off and we were able to secure the funding for our much-needed police station," Favre said in the release. "We worked with legislators for three years to find the funding for this project."

"The site is extremely accessible to the public and next to municipal court, city hall and the fire department," Police Chief Gary Ponthieux Jr. said in the release. "We are currently in the process of demolishing the old police station and designing the new one. We anticipate the new station will be approximately 8,500 square feet and will provide state-of-the-art facilities for employees and citizens. There will be space within the structure for citizens and our youth to interact with the department staff in a positive environment."

The new police department will also provide the police department the opportunity to meet minimum accreditation requirements by Mississippi Law Enforcement Accreditation Commission (MSLEAC), according to the release..

The council voted Tuesday to authorize advertisement for bids for engineering and architectural services for both the Depot and police station projects.

The Gulf Coast Restoration Fund monies will be administered by the Mississippi Development Authority. The grants will be disbursed as an 80/20 match. The council voted to use the money from the sale of the Garden Club building on Main Street to put int the police department project, once the building is sold.

In other action Tuesday:

• The council reinstated $25,000 in funding for the splash pad project at Martin Luther King Park. That funding was temporarily withdrawn from the budget after the COVID-19 crisis began and the council tried to find ways to work around the potential tax revenue losses from the shutdown.

• The council approved using $40,000 from the Road & Bridge Fund to improve several streets in Ward Six. Ward Six Councilman Josh DeSalvo said the roads were badly need of repair.

Kindred Spirits

"Kindred spirits are not so scarce as I used to think. It's splendid to find out there are so many of them in the world." — L.M. Montgomery, "Anne of Green Gables"

The film "Anne of Green Gables" was and is still a favorite movie of mine.

The '80s version with Megan Follows, Colleen Dewhurst, Richard Farnsworth, and Patricia Hamilton, to name a few of the cast.

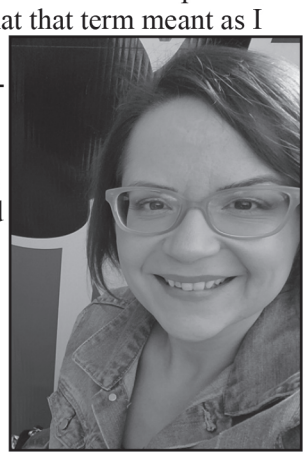
Anne — with an 'e' — was an orphan, but that's not what defined her.

In my eyes, she was a sassy, determined, loving, faithful, and intelligent woman.

Her relationship with the Cuthbert family is endearing, as was the relationship she had with her "bosom buddy" Diana.

Anne described Diana as her "kindred spirit."

I grew to understand what that term meant as I grew older.



Staff Column
By Cassandra Favre

I believe I have met several kindred spirits along the way.

The first time I believe I met one was when I started my first job and met my boss, Mrs. Nell.

She taught me a lot about the world and dubbed me "Kissieface," because I told her I had a crush on a boy.

Yes, she still calls me that and we still have a relationship like no other.

From the moment I met Dart, who is a former work colleague of mine from the Picayune Item, I knew we were two peas in a pod and kindred spirits.

He always had my back at work and it broke my heart the day he left the Item, not only because I was losing my work buddy, but because he is one of the most talented writers.

This week, the city of Waveland and Hancock County lost one of its best, former Waveland Alderwoman, Mrs. LiLi Stahler-Murphy.

From the moment I met her, I was in awe of her energy, positivity, and her colorful personality.

Through her efforts, the world will never forget the impact of Hurricane Katrina on our community. She was instrumental in opening the Waveland Ground Zero Hurricane Museum.

Just this year, Hancock County Relay for Life named her an honorary survivor.

I interviewed her in March, prior to the pandemic, about her fight with ovarian cancer.

We sat in a corner at the Mockingbird Cafe.

And as some of these interviews often go, we veered off topic and just chattted about any and everything.

I learned that we share a love for cute shoes and makeup. She had on a cute pair that day, of course.

Wicker Leads Effort to End Child Deaths in Hot Cars

Summer Months Pose Unique Risk to Young Children

Each summer, dozens of American families suffer the heartbreaking loss of a child from heatstroke in hot cars. Last year, more than 50 U.S. children died in hot cars, and unfortunately this year we have already had several hot car deaths. These avoidable tragedies leave permanent scars in the lives of families.

From the Senate
By Sen. Roger Wicker

Children are at heightened risk of heatstroke. Their body temperatures can rise three to five times faster than an adult's. A parked vehicle can heat up by 20 degrees within just 10 minutes, making it a dangerous place for a young child.

As we enter the peak of summer, parents and caretakers should be aware of these risks and take appropriate precautions. I am working to advance a comprehensive approach that will help our nation reduce hot car deaths among our youngest citizens.

INSTALLING NEW SAFETY SYSTEMS

Last year, I introduced the HOT CARS Act, which would mandate that all new vehicles be equipped with an alert system reminding drivers to check their backseats before leaving the vehicle. Such an alert would take only a second of the driver's time and could save many lives.

This proposal got the attention of the auto industry. After consulting with industry leaders, we agreed that they would voluntarily implement the safety system in new vehicles by 2024. Almost every automaker in America entered this agreement, so its effects will be significant. Under the agreement, automakers will begin implementing changes quickly to start saving lives as soon as possible.

Automakers are beginning to make good on their commitment. Some have already implemented the system, as I have seen in my own car. Auto companies should keep up the progress, and I will continue working to make sure they uphold their pledge.

STEPS EVERYONE CAN TAKE

As important as safety systems are, technology is not perfect. We all have a role to play in protecting our children. A few simple steps can go a long way toward keeping them safe.

The most important step is never to leave a child alone in the car for any period of time. A parent or caretaker might think they are running into the store quickly, but it is too easy to lose track of time and forget about the child in the car.

Another helpful step is to make a habit of leaving a cell phone, keys, briefcase, or purse in the backseat in order to keep one's attention near the child. In addition, consider arranging for a child's school or daycare to call home if the child does not arrive as scheduled.

Lastly, when leaving an empty car, lock it so that a child does not climb inside and become trapped. Sadly, this is how two young children died a few weeks ago in Oklahoma.

These tragedies can happen to anyone – young or old, male or female, parent or grandparent, rich or poor. As caretakers, we all have a duty to educate ourselves and take precautions to protect our young ones.

Sweetie

Two months ago I got a puppy named Sweetie.

She was four months old at the time. She is a blue heeler who has lots of energy and is a little crazy, but still sweet.

I got Sweetie because my German Shepherd Rosie died.

She died a few weeks before school closed due to Coronavirus. Rosie was born on January 1, 2007 and Sweetie was born on January 1, 2020.

I also got Sweetie because I was very lonely. I'm the only child and I kept texting my friends every day and no one would answer.

So we started looking for a dog. Someone my mom worked with, his sister had Sweetie, and was willing to give her to us.

So we scheduled to meet Sweetie and it went well so we got to take her home that day. Now, she always keeps me company.

Sarah and Rosie

When we first got Sweetie, she was shy, so sweet, and loved to meet new people. Sweetie loves belly rubs and she'll eat anything she sees on the ground. She'll watch television with people, but if she doesn't like the show she will take the remote and try to change the channel.

Sweetie is now six months old and has a lot of energy.

This past Fourth of July, she got so scared of the fireworks that she chewed a hole in our wall and even threw up.

She's a bit better now, but still scared.

She takes our shoes and walks away with them and is so proud of herself.

If she's confused, she'll tilt her head from side to side.

When we first got Sweetie, I didn't know how to take care of a puppy because my parents got Rosie before I was born. So by the time I was born, she was already grown up.

The day Rosie died I picked flowers for her at school thinking she was Hancock man pleads guilty in 2018 moonshine bust

SEA COAST ECHO

A Kiln man last week pled guilty in a 2018 moonshine bust.

Willie Necaise, Jr., 77, was arrested in October 28 after agents of the Mississippi Alcoholic Beverage Control executed a search warrant at his residence on Rocky Hill Dedeaux Rd.

He pled guilty Friday before U.S. District Judge Sul Ozerden to Unlawful Production of Distilled Spirits and Interstate Travel in Aid of a Racketeering Enterprise, U.S. Attorney Mike Hurst and Kurt Theilhorn, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, announced in a press release Monday.

Ozerden will sentence Necaise on Oct. 16 and faces a maximum penalty of five years in prison on each charge, according to the release, as well as fines up to $250,000 and three years of supervised release.

Willie Necaise, Jr.

Agents with the Enforcement Office of the Mississippi Alcoholic Beverage Control ("ABC") Division began investigating Necaise in 2018, according to the release. The investigation revealed that, over time, Necaise traveled out of state and obtained at least 569,775 pounds of sugar, a primary ingredient for moonshine. In addition, records showed Necaise getting large deliveries of propane gas to a rural shed in Hancock County, even during the summer. Agents tracked Necaise to Slidell, La., and observed him getting a pallet of sugar and coming back to Hancock County. Armed with a search warrant, ABC agents found forty 55-gallon drums of mash, 1,200 new plastic jugs and a 200-gallon stainless steel cooker, along with sugar and other items related to illegal moonshine. Necaise did not have a license to distill liquor.

Based on the records of the sugar purchased, it was determined that over 74,070 gallons of taxable whiskey would be produced.

"No excise tax has ever been paid by Necaise," according to Hurst's press release. "He therefore owes the ATF Tax and Trade Bureau $898,691.63 in Federal Excise Tax and the Mississippi Department of Revenue $369,752.50 in State Excise Tax."

Hurst commended the work of the agents of the Enforcement Office of the Mississippi Alcoholic Beverage Control Division of the Mississippi Department of Revenue and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Forearms and Explosives, who cooperated in investigating the case.

Assistant United States Attorney Annette Williams is prosecuting the case, according to the release.

still alive so that when I got home, I could hug her and give them to her.

But in the car on the way home from school, my dad told me that Rosie passed away.

I started crying for a few days and also had to give a presentation to my class on German Shepherds.

But soon I moved on and now I have Sweetie.

Sometimes when I'm sad, she'll come up to me and lick my face or do something silly and make me feel better.

She told me that dressing up and putting on a full face of makeup and doing her hair helped her feel more like herself.

I have to agree. For me, it's almost therapeutic, the calm before the storm of the day.

We talked for more than an hour that day and I'll never forget it or her. I wish I had known her longer, but am most grateful to have known her at all.

My favorite memory of Mrs. LiLi is from the 2019 Hancock County Dancing with the Relay Stars.

She was up there dancing with some of her fellow survivors and at the end of the song, she walked proudly to the front of the stage, tore off her wig, and proudly danced with a bald head, which was a result of the chemotherapy.

It was a powerful moment. I cried, the audience cried and then erupted into thunderous applause.

It was unforgettable and I told her so every chance I got. I hope it inspired others who were battling cancer to try and be confident with or without hair.

I will always remember the lady with the fiery red hair, bubbly personality, and an intense love for helping her community.

My thoughts are with her husband, Donald, and her family at this time.

LiLi was born on March 13, 1940 in New Orleans. She was predeceased by her parents, Alfred Frellsen Page, Jr. and Lilian Helen Walther Page, and her husband George Stahler III. She was graduated from the Louise S. McGehee School and attended Newcomb College and Soule Business College. She had a great and varied working career, including starting her own specialty advertising business Favorites, Inc. LiLi lived for many years in Metairie, Louisiana and was an active member of many community and social organizations.

LiLi was the founding force behind the Waveland Ground Zero Museum {"GZM") at the former Waveland Elementary School on Coleman A venue. The GZM is located in the oldest structure in Waveland between the railroad tracks and the Mississippi Sound to survive Hurricane Katrina.

The City of Waveland recently renamed the GZM in her honor as the "Lili Stahler-Murphy Ground Zero Museum." She was responsible for the GZM being one of the few museums in the country to be selected by the Smithsonian Institute to host an exhibit coming later this year.

IT'S NOT WHAT YOU SAY, IT'S HOW YOU SAY IT. By GARY ANDREWS

I saw a short video the other day that made a tremendous impact on me. It showed a man sitting on a sidewalk asking for donations. The man had a sign next to him that read "I am blind, please help."

Many people were walking by but only a few were dropping money into the can he had. People were reading the sign however they weren't thinking about his handicap and the problems he was experiencing.

It's this way every day for most of us. We see people in need and don't stop to think about their needs because we are so busy trying to satisfy our desires. We are so preoccupied with what we are doing or where we are going that we don't notice the ones around us, especially the ones that can use our help. Life is passing us by and we don't even realize the joy we are missing by helping our brothers and sisters in need.

All of us need to realize that at any time we can go from having what we need such as a job, food on the table, a roof over our head, and a family we can depend on to nothing at all. The ones of us that have what we need should realize that not everyone around us are as well off as we are. Many people do not want others to know they are hurting but will give signs of need that we should be able to see and read.

I know firsthand about having too much pride when I was in a time of need but thanks to Godly people around me they saw through my piety and offered much needed help.

Then there are those who actually ask for help and we should hear their plea and be there for them.

Jesus was the greatest example when He came to dealing with people. He met their needs and also gave Himself to die for all of our sins so that we may have eternal salvation. What more could anyone ever ask for. Jesus never missed a chance to help anyone and offers eternity to anyone that believes and has faith in Him.

All of us need to read other people's needs and see how we can help, just as Jesus did. The blind man who was sitting on the street could hear the people passing in front of him however his sign was not attracting the attention he needed. One lady came by, stopped in front of him, picked up his sign turned it over and wrote new words. Her new sign read, "It's a beautiful day and I can't see it."

Her words attracted many more people because it was not stating what was wrong with him, simply stating that he could not enjoy what everyone around him was seeing. A lot more people understood his need because they could visualize what he didn't have and gave generously to him. All of us need to pay more attention to those around us and help them in their time of need, especially those that need Jesus. All of us need to be extremely generous when it comes to our Christian witness.

Prayer: Lord I pray that I can be like you and see the needs of those around me. Thank you for the ones that have helped me in the past. Thank you for your saving grace. Amen.

There came on for consideration by the Board of Education of the Hancock County School District, Hancock County, Mississippi, the matter of the borrowing of money and the issuance of notes therefor in the maximum principal amount of Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00). After a discussion of the subject, Board Member Billy Thomas offered and moved the adoption of the following resolution:
RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT DECLARING THE NECESSITY FOR AND ITS INTENTION OF BORROWING MONEY FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING THE COSTS DESCRIBED HEREIN; ORDERING SAID RESOLUTION TO BE PUBLISHED; AND SETTING THE DATE UPON WHICH THE BOARD OF EDUCATION IS TO TAKE FINAL ACTION UPON THE QUESTION OF AUTHORIZING THE BORROWING OF SAID MONEY.
WHEREAS, the Board of Education of the Hancock County School District, Hancock County, Mississippi (the "Board"), acting for and on behalf of the Hancock County School District (the "District"), does hereby find, determine, adjudicate and declare:
1. It is necessary and desirable that a maximum of Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00) be borrowed for the purposes of making repairs, alterations and additions to school buildings of the District, for the purpose of erecting school buildings and other buildings used for school purposes, purchasing heating plants, air conditioning, fixtures and equipment for such buildings, purchasing land for school purposes, purchasing school buses and transportation equipment, improving and equipping such lands for school recreational and athletic purposes and paying the costs of such borrowing (the "Project");
2. No funds are available in the school funds of the District or from any other source with which to pay the costs of the Project;
3. It would be in the best interests and to the advantage of the District that the funds needed for the Project be obtained by a loan in the maximum principal amount of Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00) evidenced by a note or notes (the "Notes") issued in the manner and form provided by Section 37-59-101, et. seq., of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended (the "Act");
4. An annual levy of a special tax which shall not exceed three (3) mills on the dollar of assessed value of taxable property within the District, along with any other funds the District may pledge, shall be sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the Notes to be issued hereunder and all other notes issued and outstanding under the Act, as the same shall respectively mature and accrue.
5. Under the provisions of Section 37-59-115 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, the limitation of Section 37-59-5 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, on the indebtedness which may be incurred by school districts is not applicable to the proposed loan evidenced by the Notes;
6. The purposes for which the proposed Notes are to be issued as herein set forth in this resolution are purposes authorized by the laws of the State of Mississippi, and particularly in Section 37-59-101, et. seq., of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, and the Board is authorized and required to declare the necessity and its intention of borrowing money and issuing the Notes of the District as evidence of the same.
7. Pending the completion of the Project plans and specifications and the issuance of the Notes, the District needs to pay certain expenses incurred in connection with the performance of the Project, with such expenditures to be reimbursed from the proceeds of the loan evidenced by the Notes, when issued.
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Education of the Hancock County School District, as follows:
Section 1. The Board does hereby find, determine and adjudicate that the foregoing premises are true and correct.
Section 2. The Board does hereby declare that it is necessary to borrow an amount not exceeding Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00) for the purpose of paying the costs of the Project, previously described herein, all at a total cost approximately equal to the principal amount of the Notes to be issued hereunder.
Section 3. The Board does hereby further declare that no funds are available in the school funds of the District or from any other source with which to pay the costs of the Project, and that it is necessary that the costs thereof be borrowed in the manner and form provided by Section 37-59-101, et. seq., of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended.
Section 4. The Board hereby declares its intention to borrow such money and to issue the Notes as evidence of the same. The loan evidenced by the Notes shall bear interest at a rate to be specified by further resolution of the Board, but shall not exceed a greater overall maximum interest rate to maturity than the rates now or hereafter authorized under the provisions of Section 19-9-19 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. The Notes shall be dated from the date the loan is made and shall mature over a period not to exceed twelve (12) years, with the first installment of principal and/or interest thereon to be made within one year from the date thereof.
Section 5. Unless a petition signed by 20% of the qualified electors of said District, requesting that an election be called on the question of incurring said indebtedness, is filed prior to 5:30 p.m. on August 3, 2020 in the Board Room of the District located at 17304 Highway 603, Kiln,
Mississippi, Mississippi, final approval of the borrowing of said money and authority for the issuance of said Notes shall be given by the Board at a meeting held on such date and hour at the aforesaid address.
Section 6. The Secretary of the Board is hereby authorized and directed to cause this Resolution, as adopted, to be published in the Sea Coast Echo, a newspaper of general circulation in the District and qualified under the provisions of Section 13-3-31 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. Said Resolution shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, with the first publication thereof to be made not less than 15 days prior to August 3, 2020 on which date the Board will take final action on the question of authorizing the borrowing of said money.
Section 7. The District shall use funds currently available in its District Maintenance Fund to pay certain initial costs of the acquisition and construction of the Project, as subsequently identified by the Board, with such expenditures to be reimbursed from a portion of the proceeds of the loan evidenced by the Notes, when issued. The allocation of the Note proceeds to reimburse the District Maintenance Fund shall be made in writing not later than 18 months after the later of: (a) the date the original expenditure is paid or (b) the date the Project is placed in service or abandoned, but in no event more than three years after the original expenditure is paid. The expenditures to be reimbursed from the loan proceeds shall be incurred solely to acquire, renovate, construct, or improve property having a reasonably expected economic life of at least one year and to pay the cost of such acquisition, construction and improvements. The loan proceeds shall be used to reimburse these expenditures, and not for the reimbursement of operating costs or similar working capital items. This resolution is the official action of the Board adopted as required by regulations promulgated by the Internal Revenue Service governing the reimbursement of prior expenses from note proceeds.
Section 8. That all orders, resolutions or proceedings of the Board in conflict with the provisions of this Resolution shall be and the same are hereby repealed. The motion to adopt the foregoing Resolution motion was duly seconded by Board Member Tammy Garber. The motion then being put to a vote, the results were as follows:
Board Member Dr. Jennifer Seal Voted: YES
Board Member Ms. Danita Holladay Voted: YES

House Bill 1796 established a commission to redesign the Mississippi State Flag. The Mississippi Department of Archives and History (MDAH), which is providing clerical support for the commission, is now accepting flag design submissions. The sole purpose of the commission, according to the bill, is to develop, design, and report to the governor and the legislature its recommendation for the design of the new state flag no later than September 14, 2020.

Governor Tate Reeves, Lieutenant Governor Delbert Hosemann, and House Speaker Philip Gunn will each appoint three members to the Commission to Redesign the Mississippi State Flag no later than Wednesday, July 15. The chair of the commission will be chosen by the majority vote of the members of the commission during their first meeting.

Criteria

1. Only unique flag design submissions that include the words "In God We Trust" will be considered by the nine-member commission. Flag descriptions will not be considered.

2. The new flag design cannot include the Confederate battle flag.

3. Flag design submissions must adhere to principles of the North American Vexillological Association:

Keep It Simple. The flag should be so simple that a child can draw it from memory.

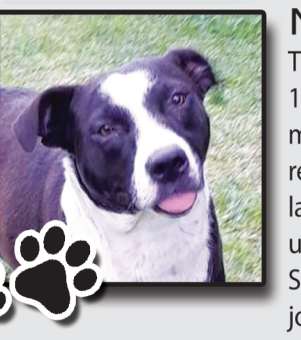
MEET IVY.



This sweet girl is a 12 month old Terrier mix who was rescued by a kind lady and fostered until very recently. She is now ready to join her forever family. She would be a fun companion for a single person or couple. She would also be a trusted family dog, as she loves playing and being in the company of children. Because Ivy is an active gal, a home with a fenced back yard would be ideal. She is great with other friendly dogs, and could easily join a home with other pets. Ivy will likely need additional house, crate, and leash training, but to have such a sweetie as part of you family is worth the effort. If you would like to meet Ivy, please call the Hancock County Animal Shelter, 228-466-4516, to schedule a visit. You will fall in love with this lovely lady. Also visit our Facebook page, Hancock County Animal Shelter, MS, to see more pictures of Ivy and of the many other wonderful, adoptable animals looking for their forever homes.

Shore Thing Fishing Report
By Cpt. Sonny Schindler

Had a some of favorite gals out on a recent fishing trip. I try to get our sitter Laura Grace(LG) out when ever time allows. Also joining LG were her best girls, my daughter Margot and LG's buddy Charlotte. They didn't wanna keep any fish, but I talked LG into bringing a few back home to her folks.

I honestly didn't think we were gonna get to fish. We had an 80% chance rain. Somehow the storms never got near us. Now, we didn't press our luck. We stayed close to Bayou Caddy and fished the reefs very close to shore. Live shrimp and croakers were our baits of choice. The ladies did fan-freakin-tastic!- Margot reeled in a few, netted the others fish, and helped keep the boat clean. Charlotte was the "newbie". She had never been to Mississippi, and never been fishing. We all made sure to let her get the majority of the fights. She was a quick learner, and before long, was putting a hurtin on some big speckled trout. Every fish was either her biggest and or the most she'd ever caught.

When storm the Clouds finally started to develop on the horizon, we agreed to fish for 5 minutes more, and call it. LG and Charlotte missed a few fish, Margot had 2 sharks break her off, and I was scrambling to get the heck out of there. On LG and Charlottes very last cast, they doubled up on big keeper trout. It was a perfect ending to a day we never thought was gonna happen. I don't know what it is, but we always seem to have better luck when the ladies are on the boat.

Gov. Reeves issues stricter COVID-19 guidelines for 13 counties; including Harrison and Jackson

SEA COAST ECHO

Gov. Tate Reeves on Friday issued Executive Order 1507, which places additional social distancing measures for 13 counties "to protect public health," including Harrison and Jackson counties.

After consulting with the state's health experts, 13 counties were indentured as "localized regions with spikes in cases and at a higher risk for transmission."

They include, Claiborne, Desoto, Grenada, Harrison, Hinds, Jackson, Jefferson, Madison, Qutiman, Rankin, Sunflower, Washington, and Wayne counties.

"Mississippi is in a fight for our lives," Reeves said in a release. "COVID-19 is an ever-present threat, and we are in the middle of a spike. It is putting a strain on our hospital system. Today, I am announcing a new order which places tighter restrictions on 13 counties that are seeing greater risk than others. Make no mistake. The risk is present everywhere. It is most visible in these counties."

Similar to the guidelines set out for other counties previously in Executive Order No. 1483, the governor lays out targeted guidelines for social distancing and sanitation protocols to slow the spread of COVID-19 within the 13 counties, including:

For all businesses:

- All businesses are expected to take every step necessary to implement the regulations, orders, and guidance from the Mississippi State Department of Health and CDC to prevent the spread of COVID-19, including social distancing and encouraging sick employees to stay home.
- All employees will be screened daily at the beginning of their shifts, including asking whether they have been in contact with a confirmed case of COVID-19 in the past 14 days and whether they had a fever in the last 48 hours.
- Based on their duties and responsibilities, employees who are unable to maintain at least six feet distance from others must wear a face covering throughout their shifts, such as a face mask. Their face coverings must be cleaned or replaced daily.
- Hand sanitizer must be provided to all employees, which can include a hand rub or soap.

For retail businesses (in addition to measures above):

- Face coverings must be provided to all employees who come in direct contact with customers. Employees are required to wear that face covering throughout their shift and clean or replace daily.
- All customers must wear a face covering while inside the retail business.
- Hand sanitizer must be placed at all entrances, in or near bathrooms, and at cashier stations.
- Retail businesses are expected to make all efforts to maintain a six foot distance between customers at all times.
- Carts, baskets, and other similar surfaces touched by customers must be sanitized after each use. Other high-touch areas must be sanitized at least once every two hours.

For people out in public:

- Everyone must wear face coverings when at public gatherings or in a shopping environment.
- People must maintain a six foot distance between themselves and others.
- Further limits on social gatherings: down to no more than 10 indoors and 20 outdoors.

Department of Public Safety encourages customers to wear masks while visiting driver license offices

SEA COAST ECHO

Due to the continuing rise in COVID-19 cases across the state, the Mississippi Department of Public Safety is urging customers to wear masks while visiting Driver License Offices. Masks will become mandatory at all Driver License Offices on Monday, July 13.

In order to help the offices run safely and more efficiently, customers are also being asked to follow proper social distancing protocols while waiting to be served. "We have to be diligent in our efforts to limit transmission of the virus," said DPS Public Safety Commissioner Sean Tindell. "We also feel it is imperative to require a facemask be worn by all patrons and personnel inside driver license offices to accomplish that goal." Each station location will continue following the daily schedule according to the first letter of customers' last names.

- Monday A-E
- Tuesday F-L
- Wednesday Firearm Permits, Security Guard Permits, Renewals, & Duplicates

Reeves and MEMA Launch COVID-19 Emergency Relief Program

SEA COAST ECHO

Governor Tate Reeves and the Mississippi Emergency Management Agency (MEMA) on Tuesday launched the MEMA COVID-19 Emergency Relief Program to help relieve the financial burdens on counties and municipalities caused by this unprecedented pandemic.

In House Bill 1799 and Senate Bill 3047, MEMA was allocated $70,000,000 of CARES Act money to assist counties and municipalities with their COVID-19 expenses.

"Hopefully it can help keep more people on the job, and prevent more layoffs," said Governor Tate Reeves. "It's not enough to overcome the terrible cost of COVID-19, but it's something. It's necessary. And we're going to do everything we can to get it out quickly and efficiently."

Through FEMA's COVID-19 Economic Disaster Declaration, counties, municipalities, and specific nonprofits are eligible for public assistance. While FEMA reimburses 75% of those approved expenses, some entities struggle to meet the 25% match. Through the MEMA COVID-19 Emergency Relief Program, the burden is now lifted from the counties and municipalities to provide that match.

Since not all COVID-19 expenses are eligible for federal reimbursement through FEMA, SB 3047 details what other expenses can be covered by the CARES Act funds. The allocation of funds from the Relief Program is based on the county or municipality's population as listed in the 2010 U.S. Census. If a government entity's costs are not entirely covered by FEMA's reimbursement, MEMA will work with remaining CARES Act funds to help ensure a 100% reimbursement.

Waveland hires lobbyist; tables MS Power franchise ordinance

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

The Waveland Board of Mayor and Aldermen on Tuesday hired Tamara Cascio with Cascio Sanford Government Law Group as an independent contractor consultant and registered lobbyist for the city, at the cost of $3,000 per month, after the city received no project funding from the Mississippi Development Authority this year.

Prior to a vote, Aldermen Bobby Richardson and Charles Piazza expressed an interest in tabling the matter until they had more information about Cascio.

Waveland Mayor Mike Smith said that he is "impressed" by Cascio and offered to have her come speak with the board.

Alderman Jeremy Burke said that the "fact of the matter" is that if "Waveland chooses not to get a governmental consultant to deal with our government affairs, we're never going to see BP money come down here, if it is, it's going to be a small piece of the pie."

"If Waveland wants to go and move the budget for travel expense to $40,000 a year so we can just go book two hotel rooms from January to April so the mayor and whoever else can go sit in the gallery?" Burke said. "The only other option is to get a contractor to go do it for us."

Richardson said that it is the "mayor's job to get in their ear."

Smith agreed but said that what Burke said "couldn't be more true."

Smith said that Cascio has the "insight into MDEQ, DMR."

Burke added that she doesn't represent another municipality.

Piazza asked, "if we approve this, how do we know that we're going to get that money?"

Smith replied, "there's no guarantee."

Waveland city attorney Malcolm Jones — who also serves as the attorney for the city of Pass Christian — said that Pass Christian has utilized lobbyists in the past.

"The problem is that they have all sorts of different funding sources right now with the Restore Gulf Coast restoration funds and with GOMESA," Jones said.

He added that the amount of activity around these funding sources is "incredible."

"And you really have to have a soldier on the ground checking that out every day," Jones said. "I think you have to have someone who is familiar and has the relationships. They have to be there at that time and you have to work it well in advance. It's like you have to hold onto it. You can spend all the time in the world preparing and you think 'I've got it' and then you don't. It shouldn't be that way. It should be merit based and not based upon what city it is or what county it is, but I'm just not going to be naive and tell you that it works like that."

Smith added that even if the city does hire Cascio, receiving funding will still "require" him to help push things along.

Jones said that it's important for the city to have someone watching the city's interests at all time.

"The best way to describe going after this money, and it has been for the last couple of years, fish eaters fight," Burke said. "Whenever you drop something in the water, all the fish go fight over it. The problem is, Waveland's not even in the tank."

Richardson said that it's not that he doesn't want the city to have a lobbyist, "I would like to see some proof in the pudding before I'd spend "$36,000 in one year."

"Show me it works," he said.

Smith suggested that the board could host a virtual meeting with Cascio.

Piazza changed his motion from one to table to a motion to approve.

The motion passed two-to-one, with Burke and Piazza voting "yes" and Richardson "no." Alderman Shane LaFontaine was absent from Tuesday's meeting.

In other action:

After an executive session to discuss "potential litigation," the board unanimously voted to table the resolution calling for a special election to be held in the municipality of Waveland on Aug. 4 in relation to an ordinance granting non-exclusive electric franchise to Mississippi Power Company, its successors, and assign a franchise in the city. The current draft order states that Mississippi Power has requested a 25-year franchise ordinance which would provide a three percent payment of Mississippi Power's total revenue from retail sales of electric energy within Waveland or $300 per annum. The board tabled the matter stating that the city did not have enough information from Mississippi Power to vote on a franchise agreement.

The board recognized the city's employees of the month: March Employee of the Month is officer Jamie Nelson; April Employee of the Month is Chris Bennett from the streets department; May Employee of the Month is firefighter Eric Jensen; and June Employee of the Month is secretary Tammy Fayard.

The board authorized the transfer of $1,000 from the Destination Waveland fund for the "Crossroads Change in Rural America," an exhibit from the Smithsonian Institution "highlighting the changes in rural communities and small towns." The exhibit will be on tour in Mississippi this September through June 2021. Waveland is one of five places selected for this exhibit.

The board approved a motion to give $2,000 — from the Destination Waveland account — to the Hancock County Tourism Bureau for the advertising and promotion of the "Crossroads Change in Rural America" exhibit.

The board approved a motion to spread the following Mississippi Tidelands Trust Fund program project summary for FY 2022 — 1.) Boat launch and marina in the amount of $250,000; 2.) Pagodas and showers in the amount of $120,000; 3.) Solar lighting along beach pedestrian pathway in the amount of $80,000.

The board approved an agreement for services rendered by the Gulf Regional Planning Commission to "provide assistance in the creation and funding of a commercial District Infrastructure Development Plan."

The next regular meeting is scheduled for July 22 at 6:30 p.m.

Bay-Waveland School District hosts '20-'21 budget hearing

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

The Bay-Waveland School District on Monday hosted its 2020-2021 budget hearing.

District business manager Tommy Felter said that this year — with the COVID-19 pandemic — has been "challenging" for budgeting.

Felter said the district receives revenues from three sources: the cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland's ad valorem taxes; from the state level through the Mississippi Adequate Education Program (MAEP); and federal funding from title, special education individuals, disabilities education fund.

Felter said the revenue projections for the FY '21 year are: Local sources budgeted at about $9.6 million; state sources at about $9.5 million; and federal sources at $4.5 million, which includes one part of CARES funding.

"Just not knowing the situation with certainty, I wanted to budget a little bit less, because we'd rather have less budgeted and get more in than to budget really high and not get as much," Felter said.

Felter said that every year, the district gets preliminary numbers from MAEP about allocations.

"Those numbers are based as if the legislature would fully fund MAEP," Felter said. "Which to my knowledge, they've only one maybe one time in the history of it and I believe it got cut later that same year. We don't really know what the cut will be. It's generally around nine percent, so I took the numbers they proposed that we get and I lowered that by nine percent to get the number I budgeted in the budget for state revenues."

The budget amount, he said, is actually about $8.7 million, a reduction of about $880,000 from the fully-funded amount.

"We'll get funding from the state at the end of July like we normally do," Felter said. "But the district, fortunately, I think has enough that we could operate a month or two without getting that money in."

The tentative local ad valorem request for the current year for operations and debt service will be $9.2 million, Felter said, which is broken down into $9 million for daily operations and $288,000 for debt service.

"We give the city that dollar amount and it's up to the city to set the millage rate to generate that much tax revenue," he said. "For the past year, this current year, the millage rate was 45.99 mills, the debt service was 1.52 mills."

Felter said that the estimated revenue from gaming is about $100,000.

Felter laid out where the expenditures go:

- Instruction of students: about $12 million
- Support services, which includes student transportation: $9.5 million
- Non-instructional (cafeteria): About $1.3 million
- Debt service: About $291,000
- 16th section, facilities acquisition: About $682,000

The expenditure projections for support services:

- Students: About $1 million
- Instruction staff: About $602,000
- General administration: About $805,000
- School administration: About $1.4 million
- Business: About $375,000
- Operations and maintenance: About $3.4 million
- Transportation: About $1 million
- Technology: About $809,000

Felter said that the 2020 assessed value for area that the district serves is about $206.3 million.

"Because we've had an increase in valuation, I guess it's generated more tax dollars basically," he said. "I will say that we can't over collect, so if something happened and there was a huge increase in building here and a mill goes up to $200,000 or $250,000, we can get what we ask for. If we get more than that, we have to escrow it, which basically means that we have to lower our request next year."

Felter said the total increase over last year's request is about $205,000,

"Again, part of that is because we're planning and we have to be ready with sanitizer and things like if we have to call somebody to come in and deep clean," he said. "We have to be able to do that. Just trying to get prepared as we can for what may happen. Again, not knowing."

Felter said the estimates for daily operations are based off historical data such as average daily attendance.

"But with the unknown element, you really don't know what historical data is going to mean for you," Felter said. "All of this was estimated using the best information that I had at the time."

The total projected budget for the '20-'21 FY is about $23 million.

In other action:

In a video message posted on Facebook on Tuesday, Reed said the district had decided that "All students and staff on every campus in BWSD will be required to wear a mask when it is not possible to utilize social distancing. In the event where social distancing is possible, masks will be encouraged, but not required."

Also in the video, Reed said parents interested in enrolling their children in the district's digital learning program for the upcoming school year may register at the district's website, www.bwsd.org; then call the child's school and set up an appointment with the principal. The deadline to enroll in the digital learning option is July 24 at 5 p.m.

Reed said any questions can be emailed to the district at questions@bwsd.org.

The next meeting is scheduled for July 20 at 5:30 p.m.
